More information about it can be found in Chapter 4, Section 7 of the Earthdog rule book: *Novice Earthdog is an instinct test requiring title to no previous exposure to earthwork. Young dogs, dogs with little working experience and novice handlers are encourage to enter. As it may be the first den experience for some dogs, the Judge and the handler shall do their utmost to assure that it is a positive experience for the dog. The Judge shall not be allowed to encourage the dog. The Judge must make sure that each handler understands the test requirements before starting the dog.
